MEMBER SPOTLIGHT

Q&A with Gregory Ross Eslinger and Dung Quoc Huynh

Greg and Dung have been members of Elite since May 2015, having joined our range the same day. Both are ESS regulars who enjoy shooting together at our range every weekend. We sat down to learn a little more about them.

Q: What got you into shooting?

Dung: I started working in the Pentagon back in the 90s. Most of my coworkers and my boss motivated me to try target shooting and trained me as well. I started with a .22 and moved up from there.

Greg: I used to shoot with my grandpa in Arkansas. We would shoot tin cans. I didn't really get into shooting until I worked for the Army as a civilian where my friend took me to his local range. That was where I tried shooting a .45 and fell in love with it.

Q: What is your favorite firearm to shoot?

Greg: ARs. There's nothing quite like an AR.

Dung: I like ARs, as well as SIGs.

Q: What is your favorite caliber to shoot?

Dung: For pistols, I like 9mm because it's good for self-defense and target shooting, and the ammo isn't too expensive. For rifles, I like shooting 7.62x39MM, but my favorite is .223.

Greg: Same here. I love .223, but I also love my .22.

Q: What is your Everyday Carry?

Dung: Either the SIG P238 or the H&K P30SK.

Greg: The P238 is my go-to. It's just so easy to conceal and is very reliable. Dung made me buy one, but it turns out I love it. His is the HD model, so it is stainless, but I have the Emperor Scorpion model, which I think is a pretty gun because of the FDE color and G10 Piranha grips.

Q: What are your hobbies outside of shooting?

Dung: We bike almost every day.

Greg: Yes, we go mountain biking frequently as well. We go on a 14-mile trail by Lake Accotink in Springfield. It's a nice, wooded trail that we enjoy going on.

Q: What do you like best about Elite Shooting Sports?

Dung: Friendly staff, very nice facility, but the staff is the best. They're willing to do things like hold doors for you. It's very nice.

Greg: Very professional. I've improved so much since I've started shooting here, and I attribute that to the environment of the range.

Dung: And the facility is more relaxing than others we've been to.

Greg: Yes, and we have stressful jobs, so this place really helps us to relax. It's wonderful! Also, we love the size of the range, and that there is an indoor 100-yard range.

FIREARM TRANSFER SERVICES

Did you know that we offer firearm transfer services right here at Elite Shooting Sports?

Here's some helpful information to get you started with the process:

- We only provide our transfer services to legal Virginia residents and active duty military personnel that are PCS to a base or station in Virginia.
- We offer transfer services for Title I firearms only.
- We offer transfer services for incoming shipments only.
- We accept incoming shipments from current FFL holders only. We do not allow non-licensees (those without an FFL) to ship firearms to us for transfer.
- The Federal law requires that only you - the purchaser of the firearm - can arrange a transfer for yourself. A dealer may not arrange a transfer for you, just like you may not arrange a transfer for someone else.

FIREARM TRANSFER FEES (per transaction):

$30 per firearm plus $2 Virginia State Police Background Check

$15 for each additional firearm transferred at the same time
